BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS

Current position held by Bobby Bruner

OVERALL EXPECTATIONS

This person will function as a Christian steward of the property God has entrusted to the congregation. This includes supervising and maintaining the physical property of the church congregation. They would manage the physical resources to support and strengthen the mission and ministry of the church.

SPIRITUAL GIFTS

This person will benefit from one or more of these spiritual gifts: servant hood, helping, leadership, administration and giving. The chairperson should show evidence of prior leadership especially in the area of stewardship of assets.

Useful knowledge and skills for this position are knowledge of property and asset management, ability to listen to and communicate with other ministry leaders.

RESPONSILILITIES

Avalon owns a lot of buildings and acreage, therefore, this position is one that entails a lot of time and effort. Consequently it may be necessary for this person to enlist as many others as needed to insure that everything gets done that needs to be done in a timely manner.

It would be impossible to list all the potential problems that might occur to the facilities, however, common sense and due diligence would be good guidelines. Certainly periodic inspections of all buildings and grounds should be done and so recorded in a maintenance log.

When a problem comes up that is beyond the persons capabilities, they should seek appropriate help to resolve the issue. If it is an extremely large item it should be brought to the attention of chairperson of the trustees for disposition.

Any maintenance of the parsonage or grounds will be done after receiving a written request from the parsonage committee chair.

ACCOUNTABILITY

This person would be accountable to the chairperson of trustees and the church council.

PARSONAGE

Current position held by Dollie Dollar

OVERALL EXPECTATIONS

This person will work with other church leaders to address the needs and opportunities so that families and people of all ages will grow as Christian disciples to fulfil the vision and mission of the church.

SPIRITUAL GIFTS

This person would benefit from one or more of these spiritual gifts: servant hood, leadership, administration, helping and shepherding.

This leader should show evidence of passion for family ministry and leadership in discipleship.

Useful skills for this position are the ability to listen to and communicate with people and to delegate responsibility while following up on a task.

This person should show genuine interest in responding to the hopes and concerns of the pastor and his family.

RESPONSIBILITIES

This person may select additional persons to assist in carrying out the functions necessary.

The primary responsibility is to insure that the parsonage is properly maintained. They will make at least an annual inspection and review, along with the coordinator of the trustees, of the parsonage. If there are any maintenance issues they will be put in writing and turned over to the trustees for their consideration. They will consult with the pastor on matters pertaining to the parsonage at any time to insure that it is maintained in the building is okay.

This group would facilitate the transfer of one pastor out of the parsonage and another one in. There are many ramifications of such an undertaking, therefore a lot of planning and coordination must be done before the physical move.

This person would decide if it can be done with local volunteers or if it needs to be done by a licensed professional. If the latter, then this person would get bids, select the carrier, and oversee the move. In either case, care would be used on the families personal items.

The facilities should be mutually respected by the pastor's family as the property of the church and by the church as a place of privacy for the pastor's family.

ACCOUNTABILITY

This person would report to the coordinator of nominations and leadership as well as to the council.

SPIRITUAL GIFTS

This leader will benefit from one or more of these spiritual gifts; administration, helping, giving and faith.

Useful skills and experience for this position are interest in record keeping, ability to keep detailed, accurate records and maintain appropriate confidentiality.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Would work with the church secretary as needed to carry out the functions dealing with memorials.

Secure all necessary cards, stamps and related supplies as needed.

Submit a budget to budget committee not later than November 15th for next year's needs.

Would work with the financial chairperson as needed to carry out any aspects that relate to money and memorials.

Send a form note card that the church has made to each person who has lost a loved one listing the names of all those that made memorials or honorariums.

Send another printed card thanking all non-members of our church for their donation.

When a request for memorial funds is made, make sure there is a good understanding of the request, so that the committee can act on the request without any misunderstanding.

After a few months all information, all information concerning a memorial or honorarium will be shredded to insure privacy of this information.

ACCOUNTABILITY

This person would be accountable to the person or persons who made the memorial and to see that it was carried out as it should.

CHURCH HISTORIAN

Current position held by Nancy Mclendon

OVERALL EXPECTATIONS

An effective historian will document the historical identity of a congregation with orderly records so that heritage will be preserved and can be built on into the future. The congregation can easily trace its efforts of the past for fulfilling the mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

SPIRITUAL GIFTS

A church historian benefits from one or more of these spiritual gifts: servant hood, knowledge, discernment and administration. This leader should show evidence of an interest in history, the ability to gather information from several sources and skills in organizing, classifying and preserving historical material. PRAYER ADVOCACY

Current position held by Ida Fowler

OVERALL EXPECTATIONS

An effective leader will help the congregation recognize that prayer is essential to a life of Christian discipleship. The congregation will become stronger in the spiritual practice of prayer. The congregation will be led by God's Spirit in fulfilling the mission of making disciples for the transformation of the world.

SPIRITUAL GIFTS

This ministry coordinator benefits from one or more of these spiritual gifts: servant hood, teaching, exhortation, wisdom, discernment, administration and helping.

This leader should show evidence of an active and growing prayer life and a desire to teach and encourage others to pray.

Useful skills for this position are the ability to listen to and communicate with people of all ages, work with other ministry leaders, model and teach a variety of way of praying, organize teams, delegated responsibility and follow up to complete tasks.

This leader should show genuine interest in responding to the hopes and concerns of people in the community.

RESPONSIBILITIES

The advocate will work with others to coordinate the planning and implementation of a comprehensive prayer ministry for the congregation.

This leader will identify, equip, and support people who are praying for all aspects of congregational life as well as for the overall goals of the congregation.

The advocate will be familiar with curriculum resources for teaching prayer, facilitate their use and be able to recommend appropriate resources for all age levels and faith stages.

This leader will link with organizations, people and resources in and beyond the congregation that are concerned with Christian prayer. This group of dedicated persons will devote the necessary time to express their thanksgiving and needs to a living God. The essence of prayer is talking to God as you would to a beloved parent. It is intimate and loving communication. The passions of the heart will come out in prayer. All the infinitely rich and inexhaustible resources of heaven are available for us as God responds to our prayers.

Jesus gave the disciples a model prayer as a guide which all people can use. If, however, you are still uncomfortable, remember that the Bible says that the Holy Spirit will assist you. God hears and God answers.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE COMMITTEE

Individuals maintain a healthy and growing personal spiritual life. The committee shall engage in biblical and theological reflection about the mission of the church and biblical leadership.

This committee shall encourage, strengthen, nurture, support, and respect the pastor and staff and their families. They confer regularly about the personnel conditions and issues that affect the congregation's total ministry, including healthy life-work balance.

They shall help the staff set priorities.

This committee communicates openly and regularly with the pastor, staff, and congregation. In consultation with the pastor and with awareness of the strategy of the church leadership team, this committee recommends staff positions needed and develops and approves written job descriptions and titles for staff.

This committee recommends compensation, travel, housing, and other financial matters to the church council through the finance committee. In consultation with the pastor, the committee recommends to the church council a written statement of policy and procedures for hiring, evaluating, promoting, retiring, and dismissing staff members who are not subject to Episcopal appointment.

This committee is responsible for carrying out, through appropriate agencies, proper screening (including background checks) for lay employees and volunteer staff.

This committee weighs several factors as they meet with the district superintendent and/or the bishop in an advisory capacity related to clergy leadership. They consider the age and stage of the congregation. They must have an understanding of feelings and desires within the congregation about the pastor's leadership and appointment. They also consider the culture and needs of the community around the church.

This committee provides an annual evaluation of the pastor and other staff for ongoing effective ministry.

This committee enlists, evaluates and annually recommends to the charge conference candidates for professional ministry.

The work of the committee may include sub-teams (such as a parsonage committee or volunteer staff committee; the committee on nominations and leader development may help identify people for these groups.

ACCOUNTABILITY

This committee would be accountable to the church council and the district superintendent. On some occasions to the bishop.

CHAIRPERSON OF TRUSTEES

Current position held by Bill Beard

OVERALL EXPECTATIONS

Effective trustees will function as Christian stewards of property God has entrusted to the congregation. This includes supervising and maintaining both the physical property of your congregation and gifts made to the congregation so that the ministries of the congregation can be effective and all legal requirements related to property are satisfied. You are the Keepers of God's house" and your ministry ensures that the facilities and residences are functional.

There shall be no fewer than three nor more than nine and at least one third should be laywomen. They should be divided into three classes and serve a term of 3 years.

SPIRITUAL GIFTS

Trustees benefit from one or more of these spiritual gifts: servant hood, helping, discernment, leadership, administration and giving. The chairperson should show evidence of prior effective ministry leadership, especially in the area of stewardship of assets, and exhibit evidence of active and growing discipleship. Useful knowledge and skills for this position are knowledge of property and asset management, ability to listen to and communicate with people of all ages and ability to work with other ministry leaders. The chair shall show prior ability to presided over meetings, delegate responsibility and follow up to complete tasks. Trustees should show genuine interest in responding to the hopes and concerns of people in the community and show willingness to partner with community interests.

RESPONSIBILITIES

This leader guides the work of the trustees throughout the year, including preparing and communicating the agenda for meetings, leading the meetings, following up on plans by assigning responsibility for implementation and coordinating both routine and special maintenance of church property, including endowments, trust funds, and gifts made to the congregation.

The chairperson should maintain a healthy and growing spiritual life.

This person needs to become familiar with disciplinary and legal requirements related to church property and with United Methodist resources and organization.

This person should consult regularly with the pastor about property matters.

This person would help new trustees each year to recognize the biblical and theological reasons that under gird our work.

This person would participate with other committees as necessary.

The first task of business each term shall be to elect officers. The officers shall consist of Chairperson, Vice-chairperson and Secretary.

This person should be able to evaluate any and all aspects of purchase and/or sale of property (real or otherwise).

This person will follow and use the guidelines spelled out in the book of discipline, sections 2537, 2539, and 2544 for any purchase. They will also adhere to sections 2540 and 2541 for any sale.

This person should be able to read and interpret the language of all insurance policies as to coverage. Also maintain a complete file of all policies in place and their expiration dates. These files would be reviewed at least annually and more often if necessary.

This person should be able to put together the specifications for a bid if it is felt that additional coverage is needed. Also, possibly to rebid the same coverage if it has been a number of years since it was last done.

All insurance related documents as well as all property related files should be stored in a safe place off site.

A majority of the members trustees shall constitute a quorum.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE COMMITTEE

This team, subject to the direction of the charge conference, has oversight of the use and care of all local church property, buildings, and equipment to further the mission of the church. This is done in consultation with the pastor.

This team and individual trustees need to engage in spiritual practices that build a relationship of attentiveness to God's will and direction. Church administration and attentiveness to daily affairs can distract the team from the mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. Trustees need to hold each other accountable to the mission and vision of the Church.

Trustees receive and administer all gifts made to the congregation, making certain that trust funds of the congregation are invested properly.

Trustees ensure that the Articles of Incorporation of the congregation are kept up-to-date.

Trustees annually review property, liability, and crime insurance coverage on church-owned property, buildings and equipment.

Trustees conduct an annual accessibility audit of buildings and grounds to discover and then work toward eliminating barriers that impede the full participation of all people.

The team submits annual budget requests to the committee on finance for property maintenance and improvement and new property purchases.

The powers of the committee are spelled out in Section 2533 of 2012 Discipline.

ACCOUNTABILITY

Trustees are accountable to the charge conference and the church council.
